DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Both Leader and Sentinel, the two Burea papers, favor the holding of a Constitutional Convention, for the purpose of having such changes as will afford immediate relief to the State. It is possible that there would be no "jumping from the frying-pan into the fire," but the experiment might prove costly. Only four years ago this question was submitted to the voters, and by them overwhelmingly rejected. They would, we believe, be likely to stand by their former action, if the question should once more be submitted. The present constitution of Nevada is one of the very best. There are but few provisions which need amending, and one or two additional necessary, to make it absolutely perfect. This can be done in the manner provided by law. A change of the organic law might lead to such direful results as have come about from the adoption of a similar document in our sister State, and it might result in giving as evils for which we did not bargain. There is danger that the corporations and monied power of the State would succeed in controlling the convention. But the gravest objection to the formation of radical changes from the existing condition of things is to be found in the fact that years of litigation might ensue to determine just what was meant by the constitution changers. As it now is nearly every point in it has been passed upon by the Supreme Court, and the beaten path leaves no particular cause to branch off into the uncertain.

JONES AND THE CABINET.

The Coast Republican papers are beginning to urge upon President elect Garfield the propriety of selecting one member of his Cabinet from the Pacific Coast. It occurs to the Sentinel that the States of the far west, save Oregon, have few claims upon the new President. Both Nevada and California pronounced against him. The Reno JOURNAL puts in a claim for Senator Jones. It wants him to take the place of John Sherman. We would like to see the latter supplanted by a silver advocate, but it is not at all likely that the new Administration is going to be any more friendly to the silver interest than the Hayes Administration has been. The appointment of Jones to the Secretaryship of the Treasury would produce such a storm of indignation from the gold bugs of the East that Garfield, like Beecher, would wish that he were dead. But here is what the JOURNAL says:

Perfectly Competent.

[Like Independent.] The warm, earnest recommendation of Senator John P. Jones by some of the Nevada newspapers, will probably prove unavailing. Senator Jones is competent to take any office within the power of General Garfield to bestow. He would make a representative of the feelings, ideas and interests, of this Coast, perhaps better than anyone who could be named. The friendly relations understood to exist between him and Gen. Grant and Senator Conkling, might materially aid him in obtaining the position; but his well known position on the silver question will prevent it, should he desire the office. The money kings of the East will allow no man, who is not a slave to gold, to occupy any influential position in the Government.

THE TERRITORIES.

There is to be a prize fight in Tombstone, Arizona, for $200 a side.

Jerome Crooks, at Verde, Arizona, was shot November 2d by Geo. Hance and is in a dangerous condition.

The Russian murderer, Messie, who escaped from jail at Fort Townsend ten days ago, was caught in Nanaimo on Saturday. He is in jail waiting extradition.

Phil. McDonald an old resident of Williamson Valley, Northern Arizona, shot and killed Frank Richardson. The homicide took place at the polls November 2d.

Frank Clark, conductor, was killed at Wilcox, A. T., yesterday, by being run over by his train. Frank Atkinson was seriously injured at the same place by a pile of timber falling upon him.

The S. P. R. is laying side tracks at Gage, twenty miles east of the Moberly river, New Mexico. Gage will be the base of supplies for some time to come, and is 199 miles east of Tucson, and 1,178 from San Francisco. Travel from the East to Arizona is already increasing.

There is great complaint by Enterprise subscribers of the inferior quality of the matter furnished now, especially when compared with that given under Boynton Carlisle. The local columns are the most interesting portion of the paper. The Enterprise of these times no more compares with the Enterprise of old times "than hand bill compares with the New York Tribune."

We start the ball by proposing John P. Jones for Secretary of the Treasury.

Do you? Several days behind time according to our reckoning.

We make the prediction that in less than one year the JOURNAL will be a larger and a better paper than the Enterprise now is.

U. S. SENATORS.

WAINGROVE, D. C. Nov. 11, 1880. The counting being over, and the gains and losses of the late election having been figured up, it is found that the Republicans have gained so largely in the Senate, that the organization after March 4th, 1881, hangs upon the votes of Senator-elect Mahone of Virginia, and Senator David Davis of Illinois. It is certain there will be 37 Republicans and 37 Democrats, unless Tennessee should elect an Independent, which seems now probable. Then it would stand 36 Democrats and three Independents.

From Maine to California, the claims of the various candidates for Senatorial honors to fill the vacancies caused by expiration of the terms of one third of the Senate after March 4th, 1881, are discussed and put forward.

In Maine, as successor to the venerable and able Senator Hamlin, the two most prominent candidates are Hon. W. N. B. Frye, sitting and member elect from the second district, and the Hon. Eugene Hale, ex-member from the fifth district. It is almost certain that Colonel Frye will be the man.

Connecticut has two candidates in

Hon. Joseph R. Hawley, sitting member from the first district, and Ex-Post-Master-General Marshall Jewell. The chances for success are evenly divided. Either gentlemen will be an honor to the State.

In New York, among the numerous candidates, may be mentioned Hon. Levi P. Morton, John H. Starin, and Frank H. Hiscok, present members of the House of Representatives, General George H. Sharpe, Thomas C. Platt, and Governor Cornell. It is admitted on all hands that Senator Conkling's wishes will be respected, and his candidate chosen.

Hon. George M. Robeson, present, and member-elect from the first district of New Jersey, will probably be chosen, there being no organized opposition to him.

Ex-Speaker, Galusha A. Grow, and M. S. Duay, in Pennsylvania, are the candidates between whom the choice is said to lie. The latter has the Cameronian influence, the former has the pledges of nearly votes enough to nominate him. Chances about equal.

Ohio has many good men who desire to sit in Senator Thurman's chair. Governor Foster, Stanley Mathews, Judge Taft, General Beatty, Secretary Sherman, and I know not how many others are pressing their claims. Neither of them will have a walk over. Either would well represent the Buckeye State.

Michigan is not wanting in good candidates. Ex-Governor Bagley, Ex-Governor Baldwin, Governor Crossley, who will be Ex-Governor after January 1st 1881, and Hon. John S. Newberry, sitting member from the first district, are among the names that are being canvassed. It is admitted, even by his opponents, that Gov. Bagley has earned and deserves the right to ask of his State the highest gift it can bestow upon him. The Michigan colony in Washington manifest great interest in the election, and almost to a man favor Gov. Bagley. They were surprised and disappointed that he was not sent here a year ago to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Chandler.

Hon. John C. New and Gen. Ben. Harrison are much talked of to succeed Senator McDonald. If Gen. Harrison is called to President Garfield's Cabinet, the former will doubtless be elected. His State owes him a large debt of gratitude for the services rendered in the late campaign, which resulted in placing it among the galaxy of Republican States.

OREGON NEWS ITEMS.

The Colfax flouring mills pay but 35 cents and 40 cents trade for good wheat.

The Seventh Day Adventists dedicated their new church in Dayton last Sunday week.

A man named Haugh, Beaver Lake,

Oregon, killed four panthers with four successive shots, in the course of two hours.

Edward Murphy, who shot and killed

T. D. French near Heppner, Umatilla county, several months ago, has been convicted of murder in the first degree.

The jury was out only a short time.

The new Masonic Hall at the Dalles is complete, except the plastering and painting. Grant's brick, 60x120 feet, and Michelbach's, 55x100 feet, are also nearly finished, and the three add greatly to the beauty and substantial appearance of the city.

The Nez Perces Indian who was tried, convicted and sentenced to die by the Indians of the Umatilla tribe, for the murder of Oailly, a nephew of the late

Howell Wampo, still remains in jail at Pendleton. It is now thought that he will be sent to the Indian territory.

George Beishaw of Eugene has received orders for seed wheat from Canyon City and many other parts of Oregon; also from Tennessee and England.

Samples sent to Tennessee excited much surprise and admiration, as they were of such extra quality. The recipients of the samples of wheat write back, saying that they would send samples of wheat raised in Tennessee, but the quality is so far below that of wheat grown in Oregon that they were ashamed to send such grain to this country.

He raised over 100 varieties of wheat

last year.

THE GRASS VALLEY AND NEVADA RAILROAD.

The Grass Valley Union reports the little narrow-gauge from Colfax to Nevada City, Cal., as doing a flourishing business. It says, and we copy as going to show what a road from Reno north can reasonably expect:

The narrow-gauge railroad is kept busy in transporting freight, which goes forward to the upper part of Nevada and portions of Sierra county. The shipments to Grass Valley have been and still are unusually heavy. For the month of October there was a larger amount of freight passed over the road than at any time since its opening, and up to the present time of the present month there has been but little if any diminution. The freight receipts of the first half of this month are not much less than for the whole month of November 1879. There has not been a corresponding increase in passenger travel, but this is also good, and the general business of the road for 1880 will show a large increase over that of 1879. This has been brought about by the growth of population and mining in the county, necessitating larger supplies and more machinery, and an increased amount of freight coming by this route from Sierra county. The Railroad Company is well satisfied with the year's business and the future prospects.

Find a Resting Place.

The Reno JOURNAL says:

General Kittrell will leave for Bodie in a few days, close up his business and then settle in Reno.

Now John R. has been hunting for many a year for a place to pitch his tent, so to speak, where the politics of the locality would be congenial to him.

During the war he tried British Columbia.

Returning after the war, he tarried in California briefly.

That became too Black for him.

Then he tried White Pine, from whence by a scratch he emigrated to Carson as Attorney General.

A few years' incumbency of the position was all that was allowed him, before the Blacks run him out of that.

He then tried Bede, but school houses and Republicans were too thick for him there, and he returned to Carson.

The nomination of Hancock and Uncle Jim Fair's sack impressed him with the belief that he could capture the State Senatorship in Ormsby.
